

San Francisco

The City by the Bay

Cool fog. Hot restaurants. Neighborhoods to explore. Cultures to experience. Always more to discover... Only in San Francisco.

It's been almost 20 years since the annual MPIF/APMI PM conference was held in "Everybody's Favorite City." San Francisco provides an extraordinary backdrop to this year's co-located conferences. The many iconic visitor attractions, world-class restaurants, amazing shopping districts and welcoming people make for a fabulous visit.

The attraction of San Francisco is not any one thing, but the combination of so many: Cable Cars... The Golden Gate Bridge... Ghirardelli Square... Fisherman's Wharf... Lombard Street... California Redwoods... and neighborhoods such as Chinatown... North Beach... Nob Hill... SOMA (South of Market)... Union Square and nearby Sausalito across the bay.

Alcatraz, perhaps the city's most intriguing attraction, will play a big part in our conference main social event on Friday evening coupled with a dinner cruise on San Francisco's famous bay.

Only a short drive away are the splendors of North America's premier wine country in Napa and Sonoma Valleys; Muir Woods and California's Redwood Forest; and the scenic Monterey and Carmel Peninsula featuring two of California's most unique towns.

And let's not forget the city is still celebrating the 2010 World Champion San Francisco Giants who are home the week of our conference at beautiful AT&T Park.
