

Powder Metallurgy Parts Association Statistics & Benchmarking Program

The PMPA Statistic & Benchmarking Program utilizes Dynamic Benchmarking, an online data collection company. This new tool is PMPA's solution for comparing performance between member companies, a benefit only available to participating PMPA members.

The PMPA Statistics & Benchmarking Program is both a survey and benchmarking tool designed to give access to performance comparisons and industry trends that can for assistance with critical business decisions.

Included in the Program:

Profile

Plant Details

Operations

Productivity
Production Costs
Production Output
Quality Control

Compensation

Salary Positions
Salary Details
Hourly Wage Positions
Hourly Wage Details
Increases & Premiums

Health & Safety Performance

OSHA 300 Details
Injury & Illness Type
Safety Awards
Turnover & Absenteeism Details
Turnover & Absenteeism Stats

Finances

Inventory
Costs
Accounts Receivable
Sales Statistics

Sustainability

Environmental Output
Resources Consumed

Benefits

Profit Sharing/Retirement
Paid Time Off
Insurance
Other Benefits

End Market Sales

Application Details
Sales & Production Details

For more information, please contact: Dora Schember dschember@mpif.org / (609) 452-7700

Powder Metallurgy Parts Association
Metal Powder Industries Federation
105 College Road East
Princeton, NJ 08540-6692
(609) 452-7700; Fax (609) 987-8523 www.mpif.org