

Corporate Affiliate members use PM products or are involved in processes that are not eligible in other MPIF associations, such as direct powder rolling, rapid solidification, spray forming, or mechanical alloying.

BENEFITS OF MPIF MEMBERSHIP:

Meetings and Conferences:

- Members can attend the annual PowderMet conference that brings together the global PM industry for technical exchange, networking and a trade exhibition showcasing suppliers of powders, equipment and products. Registration fees are discounted for members.
- Members also are invited to attend the PM Management Summit where senior industry leaders gather to exchange ideas and discuss management issues relevant to all segments of the PM industry.

Management and Statistical Programs:

- Members receive the monthly MPIF Member Briefs summarizing industry manufacturing and management updates with pertinent information solely for PM management.
- Members receive the “Monthly Economic Indicators & Industry Trends” report, tracking leading and lagging indicators and reporting on automotive sales & production, agricultural and lawn & garden, aerospace, oil & gas, semiconductors, firearms, powder shipments, and imports and exports for U.S., Japan, India, and Europe.
- Members provide input to the PM Sentiment Survey and receive detailed results from the PM Confidence Index, an index that tracks 5 key metrics for our industry by current month and six months out. It is presented by the whole industry, by each association, and by key executive role.
- Members receive quarterly statistics on metal powder shipments useful for industry trend analysis providing a leading indicator of market conditions in North America.

Standards Development:

- Members actively support and vote on industry standards including materials standards for PM parts and products including methods of testing used by customers when specifying PM parts.

Publications and Training:

- MPIF conducts educational seminars and short courses open to your employees at member discounts.
- MPIF hosts the Guide to PM Microstructures website offering images of most MPIF material designations in a number of property influencing conditions.
- Members have direct access to the world’s most comprehensive library on PM. MPIF is the leading publisher of PM books, proceedings, standards and electronic media. Members receive discounted pricing.
- Members enjoy discounted rates on individual technical manuscripts in the online Digital Library.

Marketing Opportunities:

- Members receive a discount when advertising in the FocusPM Newsletter.
- Members are listed on various MPIF websites in a fully searchable online database of industry parts, powder and product manufacturers.
- Members can provide data and be identified in the Global PM Property Database, the world’s only global online data resource created by MPIF, EPMA and APMA.

Membership Information

The Metal Powder Industries Federation, is an incorporated 501(c) 6 not for profit trade organization. Corporate Affiliate members are subject to the policies and regulations of the federation. Membership is on a company or "corporate" basis.

Eligibility

Eligibility for Corporate Affiliate membership shall be determined by the Executive Director of the Federation in accordance with the applicable bylaws.

Any firm, or corporation (or division thereof) with offices and/or manufacturing facilities that fall within the scope of the Federation, not elsewhere represented in any of the federated associations, is eligible for Corporate Affiliate membership in the Federation.

Membership Dues and Representation

Annual membership dues are established by the MPIF Board of Governors. For federal income tax purposes, payments to MPIF are not deductible as charitable contributions. They may be deductible under other provisions of the Internal Revenue Service code, including those applicable to business expenses.

Each member company must appoint an individual to serve as its "Official Representative" who will be authorized to represent, and act for the company. This does not preclude other individuals from the same company from participating.

Members may also designate any number of additional individuals to serve as "Alternate Official Representatives" who will receive the same mailings and communications as the Official Representative.

Each corporate voting member shall have one vote at Federation meetings.
